LINDSAY.

Entered, according to the Act of the Parliament of Canada, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, by the REV. WILLIAM BRIGGS, in the Office of the Minister of Agriculture, at Ottawa.

1881

PREFACE.

At the request of the Executive of the Western Section of the Book Committee of the Methodist Church of Canada, the Revs. Enoch Wood, D.D., Ephraim B. Harper, D.D., Alexander Sutherland, D.D., John A. Williams, D.D., Richard Brown, Esq., J. B. Boustead, Esq., William Cluxton, Esq., and C. W. Coates, Esq., consented to form a Committee to prepare a collection of Tunes suitable to the various metres found in the New Hymn Book. A circular, inviting co-operation, was sent to the ministers, organists, and the principal leaders of choirs throughout the Connexion, which met with a large response ; and the compilation now presented to the Church is the result.

The Music has been selected with great care, from the best sources, and with special reference to its adaptability for Congregational use, and at the same time meeting the growing improvement in the service of song observable in most of our Churches.

The Tunes here presented will be found to be in accord with the spirit and character of the Hymns in use amongst us ; and the adoption of them, it is hoped, will promote intelligent expression, and devout feeling, in one of the most delightful exercises of Christian worship.

Many of the Tunes have been tested by long usage, and have become sacred as a medium of praise ; others are relatively new ; yet an acquaintance with them will soon render them as popular as the old.

The Committee express sincere thanks to those Publishers who have kindly permitted their copyright music to be inserted in this collection.

To Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, for permission to insert No. 341, a production of H. R. H. the late Prince Consort.

EDITORIAL NOTE.

As most of the tunes are printed in open notes, care should be taken not to sing too slowly. It is a mistake to suppose that all music so written is necessarily slow. For guidance in singing, certain terms are used. "Cheerful," etc., prefixed to the tunes, the terms being supposed to represent the time as marked by the single beat of a pendulum or metronome, as follows:—

Joyful,	Pendulum	22 inches.	Metronome	80 =
Cheerful,	"	27 "	"	72 =
Moderate,	"	31 "	"	66 =
Slowly,	"	38 "	"	60 =
Slow,	"	48 "	"	54 =

In following these indications, it should be remembered that the character of the hymn, the construction of the melody, the size of the congregation, and other circumstances, will be found to exert an influence upon the speed of the music.

REFRAIN.

Every hour I need thee; O bless me now, my Saviour, I come to thee!

One more day's work for Je - sus, One less of life for me!

But heav'n is near - er, And Christ is dear - er Than yes - ter - day, to me;

CHORUS.

His love and light Fill all my soul to - night. One more day's work for Je - sus,

One more day's work for Jesus, One more day's work for Jesus, One less of life for me.

408. Hymn 829.—“Safe in the Arms of Jesus.”

W. H. Doane.

CHORUS. Safe in the arms of Je - sus, Safe on his gen - tle breast,
Safe in the arms of Je - sus, Safe on his gen - tle breast,

There by his love o'er - shad - ed, Sweet - ly my soul shall rest.
There by his love o'er - shad - ed, Sweet - ly my soul shall rest.

Hark! 'tis the voice of an - gels, Borne in a song to me,

O - ver the fields of glo - ry, O - ver the jas - per sea.
D. C. for Chorus.

409.

Hymn 352.—Meditation.Freeman Lewis.

O how hap - py are they, Who the Saviour obey, And have laid up their treasure above!

Tongue can never express The sweet comfort and peace Of a soul in its ear - li - est love.

410.

Hymn 834.—“Saviour, Like a Shepherd.”

Saviour, like a Shepherd lead us, Much we need thy tend'rest care;
In thy pleasant pastures feed us, For our use thy fields pre - pare:

Blessed Je - sus, Blessed Je - sus, Thou hast bought us, thine we are,

"Saviour, Like a Shepherd."—Continued.

Blessed Je - sus, Blessed Je - sus, Thou hast bought us, Thine we are.

411.

Hymn 838.—The Child's Desire.

I think, when I read that sweet sto - ry of old, When Je - sus was here among men, How he call'd lit - tle chil - dren as lambs to his fold, I should liked to have been with him then.

Take the name of Je - sus with you, Child of sor - row and of woe;

It will joy and comfort give you, Take it, then, where'er you go.

CHORUS.

Precious name, O how sweet, Hope of earth and joy of heav'n.
Precious name, O how sweet,

Precious name, O how sweet - - - Hope of earth and joy of heav'n.
Precious name, O how sweet, how sweet.

When shall we meet a - gain, Meet ne'er to sev - er

When shall peace wreath her chain round us for - ev - er

Our hearts will ne'er re - pose, Safe from each blast that blows,

In this dark vale of woes, Nev - er — no, nev - er!

Listen! the Master be - seech - eth, Calling each one by his name; His voice to each loving heart reacheth, Its cheerfullest service to claim.

Go where the vineyard de - mand - eth Vinedresser's nurture and care; Or go where the white harvest stand - eth, The joy of the reaper to share.

The Pilgrim's Mission.—Continued.

CHORUS.

Then work, brothers, work, let us slum - ber no long - er,

For God's call to la - bour grows strong - er and strong - er;

The light of this life shall be dark - en'd full soon,

But the light of the bet - ter life rest - eth at noon.

Wilt thou hear the voice of praise Which the lit - tle chil - dren raise,

Thou who art, from end - less days, Glorious God of all?

While the circling year has sped, Thou hast heavenly bless - ings shed,

Like the dew, up - on each head; Still on thee we call.

What a friend we have in Je - sus, All our sins and griefs to bear!

What a pri - vi - lege to car - ry Ev - 'rything to God in pray'r!

O what peace we of - ten for - feit, O what needless pain we bear,

All because we do not car - ry Ev - 'rything to God in pray'r!

Work for the night is com - ing, Work thro' the morn - ing hours;

Work while the dew is spark - ling, Work 'mid springing flowers;

Work when the day grows bright - er, Work in the glow - ing sun;

Work for the night is com - ing, When man's work is done.
